meeting & destination specialists

FACTSHEET

BACKGROUND

VenueQuest is one of the fastest growing professional meeting planning and hotel site selection companies in the United States. Exemplary customer service, commitment to excellence, years of hotel experience and extensive industry relationships give VenueQuest their competitive edge and are the foundation for earning the trust of their clients and the hotels with which they do business.

VenueQuest has a reputation for providing superior, efficient service while upholding the highest ethical and professional standards. As licensed travel professionals, VenueQuest is able to provide hotel site selection service at no cost to client organizations. Comprehensive meeting planning services, including registration and transportation arrangements, are additionally available to all clients for a nominal fee. VenueQuest leverages their worldwide volume of business to provide clients with the very best rates, concessions, accommodations and meeting space available. VenueQuest has consciously chosen NOT to enter into preferred agreements with individual hotel companies in order to remain unbiased for the clients' best interest.
